Ella was born September 12, 1927 to Robert and Louise Zieglemann, the only girl with three older brothers. She was a telephone operator in California when she met her husband Dale Kessler at a dance in 1945 where he was supposed to meet another gal. Fortunately for sweet lovely Ella the other gal didn’t show and a few months later they married and came back to Dale’s home in LaGrange. They had a very loving marriage of over sixty-eight years which included three children. Along with Dale she was very active in the Bible Church. She also was the dishwasher for the Senior Center and a member of the LaGrange Homemakers for many years.

Ella was preceded in death by her parents; brothers Robert and Bill Zieglemann; daughter Evelyn Kessler; husband Dale; and son Lewis Kessler. She is survived by her son Robert Kessler of Cheyenne, Wyoming; daughter-in-law Wanda Kessler of LaGrange; brother Frank Zieglemann of California; grandchildren Lynette (James) Bye of LaGrange and Brian Kessler of Scottsbluff, Nebraska; eleven great grandchildren; five great-great grandchildren; and many nieces, nephews and cousins.
