“ Carrie was my best friend. We were born 10 days apart. We met in Kansas. When my phone broke after she called me during her battle with cancer and I lost her number to call her back. I am so sorry I did not tell her goodbye. She will always be in my heart. Now that I have found this it's my time to grieve.

“ I am sorry for your loss. She will be missed. Believing in the promises of Jesus and the sense of peace I have over the 1987 loss of Timothy Weimer, I say with confidence, Carrie is without pain and with family that has gone on before. May your memories bring you joy and laughter. May God comfort and surround you with love.

“ I have the fondest memories of Carrie, we shared many late night talks when we both worked together at DSI. I have never met anyone in my life that I have enjoyed visiting with as much as her. Our friendship remained throughout the years and now I can only thank God for allowing me to have met such a special person. My prayers go out to the family for your great loss.
