

Douglas Fullmer

August 23, 1922 - December 29, 2008

TORRINGTON, WYOMING.....Memorial services for DOUGLAS E. FULLMER 86, will be held at 10am Friday, January 2, 2009 at the Lingle Presbyterian Church in Lingle, Wyoming with Reverend Curtis Hill officiating. Burial with military honors will be in the Valley View Cemetery in Torrington following. Doug died at his home in Torrington on December 29, 2008. Cremation has taken place. Memorials may be made to the Goshen County 4-H Council. Arrangements are under the direction of the Colyer Funeral Home and friends may send condolences to the family at www.colyerfuneralhome.com. Doug was born August 23, 1922 in Kearney, Nebraska the son of Coy and Leona (Cloud) Fullmer. At an early age his family moved to the Chestnut Valley area north of Torrington, Wyoming and he attended school in Torrington. After school he worked on farms in the area for awhile. He married LuThera Titchner on September 13, 1941 in Gering, Nebraska. In 1944 he enlisted in the U.S. Navy and after his discharge in 1946 came back to this area and worked for Art Damrow in his dairy. They moved to Douglas, Wyoming for a short time then back to the dairy before moving to a farm south of Lingle, Wyoming in 1958. He ran a gas station in Lingle for a time before going to work for Brown Bean Co. for eighteen years. Later he drove school bus for the Lingle school district. After the death of his wife he moved to Torrington and later married Patricia Rust on December 15, 2007. Doug was a 4-H Leader for twenty-three years. He was a member of a Bridge Club, the American Legion #63 in Lingle where he served as District Commander for two years, and a member of the Lingle Presbyterian Church where he served as an elder. He held 4-H meetings in his front yard under a cottonwood tree that was there when he homesteaded. After retirement he was active in AARP and the Retired Teacher's Association where he served in many offices. He was also a past member of the Lion's Club. He enjoyed playing cards, cribbage, hunting, and fishing. Doug is survived by his wife Patricia of Torrington, Wyoming; five sons, Richard and his wife Pat of Torrington, William and his wife Jeannie of Cheyenne, Wyoming, Jerald and his wife Lynnea of Lusk, Wyoming, Craig and his wife Roberta of Yoder, Wyoming, and Douglas and his wife Stacey of Gilbert, Arizona; a brother, Robert Fullmer of Torrington; a sister, Margaret Arland of White Bear Lake, Minnesota; eleven grandchildren; and thirteen great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; his first wife LuThera; one brother, C. Leland Fullmer; and two infant sisters Mary Ann and Patty Jean.

Comments

---

“ Uncle Doug was just one of my favorite people in the world. You know he and my Dad looked so much alike that since Dad died, when I saw Uncle Doug my heart would skip a beat. He just reminded me of Dad. I always felt so loved by Uncle Doug. He always greeted me with a big smile and a big bear hug. I loved going to his house back when we kids were all growing up. With all of the Fullmer boy cousins and me!! We always had a football game in Doug's front yard. To his Dick, Bill, Jerry, Craig and Doug...You had a great Dad.

Patty Fullmer - December 29, 2008 at 12:00 AM

---

“ To Doug's family,

I just want to send my thoughts and prayers to all of you at this time. When I was a kid I always remember "Uncle Doug" and all of you boys since Betty and I were inseparable friends. Your Dad was a kind, easy-going man and I know you'll miss him.

Sincerely,
Marilyn

Marilyn Olson - December 29, 2008 at 12:00 AM

---

“ Doug was our landlord in the duplex on West C street. He was always there for us and wanting to visit. We will remember the fun times we had. The trips to the rodeos, hearing about the great fishing trip to Alaska, hearing about his growing family. He was a great friend.
Gary and Becky

Becky McFarland and Gary Artzer - December 29, 2008 at 12:00 AM

---

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The Fullmers have always been so kind to our family. May we all live our lives to the fullest as he has. God Bless.

Erin Ragulsky - December 29, 2008 at 12:00 AM

---

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to all of you at this time. Doug was always so kind to me during my short time in Lingle.

Jennifer Eller - December 29, 2008 at 12:00 AM

---

“ Dear Family,

We would have really liked to be with you to grieve the loss of and to celebrate the life of a dear brother and uncle.

As a brother, Doug was the spirited one who was always ready to tease an older, but far smaller "big" Sis. As an uncle, Doug shared a laughter and smile remembered long after the last time we talked.

As you begin a new chapter in your family's life, know that we are praying for your strength, courage and peace.

Love,
Auntie Margaret and Betty

Betty Wade Jones and Margaret Arland - December 29, 2008 at 12:00 AM

---

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you as you grieve your loss.

Hold onto to those treasured memories!

Love and Prayers,

Kim Hergert and Shawn

Kim Hergert - December 29, 2008 at 12:00 AM

---

“ I met Mr. Fullmer when I was a small boy and the one thing I remember the most is he always had a piece of candy in his pocket for you.

Kevin & Anne Hergert - December 29, 2008 at 12:00 AM

---

“ I did not know Douglas, but I remember him. I know his son, by the same name, Douglas. I remember one other son and several other relatives. We give the entire family our sympathy.

Garold W. And Theresa L. Newton - December 29, 2008 at 12:00 AM

---

“ I am sending a second sympathy message. Dick is the son I know best, so I apologize, Dick, for not mentioning that the first time.

Garold W. And Theresa L. Newton - December 29, 2008 at 12:00 AM