“ What a pleasure it has been knowing Ev. Reading the obituary told us so much more about her life than either of us knew. She was quite a lady in many ways.

Chances are we will not see all of you in the future but what a wonderful family all of you have been to Ev. She has been part of every family gathering. You will miss her that is for sure.

So sorry this doctor's appointment will not allow us to celebrate her passing with you. There are some things beyond our control so we just have to accept them.
