“ So very sorry to hear of Fran's passing. She and my mom, Antonina Pukitis were such good friends and believers in the Lord. I am sure they are bathing in HIS holy light!

“ I was saddened to read of Frances' passing but it's brought back many, many memories of growing up as her neighbor from the '40s through the '60s. Your mom made your house a focal point for all of us kids in the neighborhood and was always welcoming. Some things I haven't thought of in years: Butchering chickens in your backyard and later playing with their feet; Writing our names in wet concrete for a driveway (I think your mom said she had a photograph of all of us proudly standing by our handiwork before it was smoothed over); A Halloween party in your basement; Playing tetherball in your backyard (I think that's outlawed now). A great time to grow up and your mom and dad made it special!

Love,
Gary McCone
