“ My favorite memory of my Uncle Kenny is when he and his sister, Lucile, and my dad, and their respective spouses, flew out to my house in Virginia so they could attend the Grand opening of the World War II Memorial in Washington DC. Kenny could still fit into his uniform so he wore it the day we went for the tour. It just so happened that Connie Chung was there doing interviews and pulled Uncle Kenny over to the camera for an interview. I know he was very excited to be on TV and I was very proud to be there with him. I will miss him very much. He was a very kind, funny and gentle man. Rest in peace. Love, your niece, Laurie.

“ Kenneth was a very special man. He could make you laugh even when you thought you couldn't. I enjoyed our times together reminiscing about his past growing up in Iowa and his military days. We could talk about anything really and the times we spent around his kitchen table “painting” will be a memory I treasure forever. He meant so much to me and I hope I brought as much to his life as he did to mine.
