“ I only met Ms. Moore once and that was at my daughter's wedding to her son Bryan. Even though I spoke to her only briefly, I got the impression of a very proud and strong woman with a very obvious love of her family. I know this is true because of what Bryan or Joanna (my daughter) has told me over the years. I know Bryan was very proud to call her Mother and that she had a strong influence on the person that he has become today. My heart goes out to the entire Moore family in this time of sorrow but remember that as long as you keep her memories in your heart, her spirit will live on with you until the time that you see her again. God bless all.
