Ralph was born May 1, 1917 in Henry, Nebraska. He married Anna Franz on June 16, 1936 in Harrisburg, Nebraska and they had their only child Robert L. Nash. The family moved to Torrington, Wyoming where he began construction on his home where he remained until his passing. Ralph worked at farming and ranching in the Sheep Creek area before moving on to several potato companies in the Torrington area. He started working for Goshen Irrigation District in the late 1950's for the next eighteen years and then went to work for Goshen County Road and Bridge until his retirement in 1982. Ralph and Anna's true enjoyment came from buying and selling antiques. He continued to go to auctions up until his passing. When he wasn't at home fixing clocks, old phonographs, or outside riding his tractor, just to name a few he enjoyed his time socializing with his friends at the local senior center.

Ralph is survived by his granddaughter Pam Nash of Fort Collins, Colorado; his grandson Mike (Julie) Nash of Torrington, Wyoming; two great granddaughters Jaszmyne Beverly and Stephanie Aguillo of Torrington; a step-grandson Vince (Joyce) Grimes of Galeton, Colorado; as well as several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife Anna; his son Bob; and eleven siblings. Ralph was an amazing man and will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

“ We always liked hearing Uncle Ralph talk about his memories of his family when growing up and all about his antiques, he could tell you what they was, the year they came out, what they are valued at, and a story behind some of them. Uncle Ralph was loved by family and friends. We will miss him dearly. Love Arthur and Patty Owens and family.
