

Ardith Jean Cassel

January 15, 1937 - February 8, 2017

Ardith Jean Cassel passed away peacefully on February 8, 2017, at Torrington Community Hospital. A celebration of her life will be held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, February 11th at the First Wyoming United Presbyterian Church in Torrington.

Ardie was born January 15, 1937, in Torrington. She was the daughter of George and Virginia (West) Maude. She was born in Smith Center Kansas, but lived most of her life in Torrington. She graduated from Torrington High School in 1953. She married Keith Cassel on August 4, 1953, at the First Presbyterian Church in Torrington. Their marriage was blessed with three sons, Kyle, Matthew, and Darren.

She worked at the Farr-Wyoming Company (Kelly Bean) for many years before realizing her lifelong dream of owning her own clothing store. Ardie's Smart Shop was a downtown fixture for nearly 20 years.

Ardie was very involved in the community and loved the town of Torrington and the state of Wyoming. One of her proudest moments was receiving her 50 year pin for her membership in the PEO Sisterhood. She was a lifelong member of the First Presbyterian Church and was a Deacon there at the time of her passing. She will be remembered as a loving wife, a wonderful mother, a doting grand- and great-grandmother, a caring sister and a special friend to many. Some of her favorite times were spending Thursday nights with friends in her "Golf League."

She is survived by her loving husband of 64 years Keith, sons Kyle (Jamie), Matthew (Jane), and Darren (Andria), grandchildren Jay (fiancé Catherine Ryan), Adam (Celica), Ashley (fiancé Matthew Robison), Colby, Sydney Holmgren (Peter), Jesse, Connor, Tanner, and Beckett and great granddaughters Kiersea, Kaleigha and Tynne.

She was preceded in death by her parents George and Virginia Maude, brother Wayne, sister Marjorie, and grandson Samuel.

Colyer Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements. The family requests that any Memorials be made to the First Presbyterian Church in Torrington.
