“ She was such a wonderful person. We enjoyed visiting with her and Robert very much. She was a great hostess. We had many delightful telephone conversations with her during the last few years. We will miss her very much.

“ I'm sorry we cannot attend the services. I will always remember how fun it was to play cards and Scrabble with Aunt Bobby--but only when the grownups would let me.

I'm very sorry for your loss.

“ A. Bobby liked iced coffee. I just couldn't understand the concept of that as a youngster. She was always ready to entertain, and when she and U. Robert took you sight-seeing, they always went the back roads (sacheting is what she called it). U. Robert said he was crossing the street when they announced the end of the war and he grabbed her to hug her and "haven't been able to get loose since". She was a great cook and wonderful Aunt. I shall miss her and the not frequent enough, but long, phone calls. She's with U. Robert where she belongs. I love you A. Bobby!
