Beth Ann was born on Dec. 31, 1938, to Vernon I. and Katheryn (Emery) Clemens of Yoder. She grew up on a farm near Yoder along with her brothers, Bob, and Jack. She graduated from Yoder High School in 1956, and went on to attend Goshen County Community College, where she met her husband. She and Russell Wells married on March 27, 1959.

Beth Ann and Russell found great joy in their farming and ranching lifestyle across the Goshen County area. They also owned and operated Quality Construction, a dirt work and road construction business. Beth Ann and Janet Wagner (sister-in-law) also opened a café called Wag-Wells, which operated out of Torrington by the sale barn. When she wasn't bookkeeping for the family businesses, Beth Ann enjoyed spending time at the couple's cabin near Esterbrook playing Liar's Dice with her family. She also loved occasional trips to Deadwood, where she often won. With each special memory, Beth Ann was always accompanied by her beloved 4-legged companions.

Beth Ann was known for her kind heart, sense of humor, and great love for her family. She will be dearly missed and remembered by a host of family and friends, including: husband of 65 years, Russell Wells; son, Joseph (Cindy) Wells of Lingle; daughter, Cindy (Keith) Gibbs of Lingle; grandchildren Crystal (Adam) Albers; Jacob (Lacey) Wells; Amy (Dustin) Haas; Hannah (Austin) Olson; and Heather (Henry) Rawlings; as well as six (nearly seven) great-grandchildren: Autumn, Logan, Colt, Holden, Reece, Flora, and (Baby Rawlings-to-be).

“ My first memory of Beth Ann was in 1958. Us guys were driving up and down main in Torrington after dark, our usual pastime. A 1948 Plymouth Sedan went by and I could see a young woman driving it. One of the guys said that's Beth Ann Clemens, Russell's new girlfriend from Yoder. Later that fall, Russell said I think you would like to meet Beth Ann's college roommate, Ina Marlatt from Huntley. We did that and made pizza. After that, lots of double dates. I never knew how two girls could laugh so much. Russell and Beth Ann got married in the spring of 59, March 29 and Ina and I got married on June 6. Each was the other's bridesmaid. A year later, Beth Ann and Russell were blessed with a baby boy, Joe, in June 60 we had a baby boy, Jeff. I think of all the blessings life gives to us, being born in a beautiful, productive river valley in Wyoming, sunrises, sunsets, rainbows, flowers, dogs, children and grand and great grandchildren, thunderstorms, the pride of hard work, the lovers touch, a morning cup of coffee, fishing in Glendo using cowbells, surviving life's struggles, having known Beth Ann.
