

Betty Erschabek

December 22, 1928 - May 10, 2006

GUERNSEY, WYOMING.....Funeral mass of Christian burial for BETTY AVALEY ERSCHABEK, 78, will be held at 10:00a.m. Monday, May 15, 2006 at St. Anthony's Catholic Church with Reverend Robert Cousineau, SJ officiating. Burial will follow in Prairie Rest Cemetery. A Wake/Rosary will be at 6:00p.m. on May 14, at the church. Betty died at Community Hospital in Torrington on May 10. Memorials may be directed to the Guernsey Rescue Unit. Visitation will be Sunday from 1 to 4p.m. at the Colyer Funeral Home and the casket will be open at the Rosary. Betty was born December 22, 1928 in Lusk, Wyoming the daughter of Joseph and Pearl (Hayes) Boyles. She grew up in Van Tassell, Wyoming and received her education in Ft. Laramie, Wyoming graduating from Ft. Laramie High School. She married Joseph Erschabek on July 2, 1946 in Hartville, Wyoming. They started a small ranch a mile north of Guernsey which they operated for forty-five years. They moved into Guernsey. Betty enjoyed crafts, camping, fishing, playing cards, making quilts and needlepoint with precision excellence, and was a wonderful cook. Family was always number one with her. Betty is survived by three sons, Dennis Erschabek of Guernsey, Robert Erschabek and his companion Jennifer of Austin, Texas, and Jerry Erschabek and his wife Myrna of Torrington, Wyoming; one brother, Gene Boyles of Torrington; two sisters, Wilda Osborne of Oklahoma, and Twinkle Baars of Wheatland, Wyoming; three grandchildren; and three great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; three brothers, Eldon, Reed, and Donald;

and a sister Mardell.