“ I went to school with Brad and I remember him as a very friendly and nice guy. I had him in several classes and I remember his laugh. He was such a neat person, always up-beat, and was the guy to go to when you needed a good laugh or a word of wisdom. I will miss him, and although it is our loss on Earth, in heaven they have received an angel. God Bless you Brad, you made a mark on me and I will always be forever grateful for our friendship. Until we meet again.

“ " Do not be amazed at this, for a time is coming when all who are in their graves will hear His voice and come out - those who have done good will rise to live, and those who have done evil will rise to be condemned." (John 5:28-29) You have left us my friend and some wonder why ? You have decided to take a different path in life and only you and God know why. You lived life to the fullest and your zest and spirit will be remembered long after your passing. The pain we feel now will pass in time but we will always remember you for the good you left us with. Rest now Brad, we will be together soon. Yabba Dabba Doo my friend, Gunney

“ I will always hold you in my memory as the man who was ever and always a "boy" filled with enthusiasm for fishing, hunting, your "birthday month presents" from your mom....and those precious daughters. Twenty or more years of being an acquaintance -(& your mailman) -If I have an abundance of memories that bring smiles to me, how many more you left with those who were close to you. My deepest sympathy to you Jill, Sydney, Avery, and parents.

“ I adored Brad West. He was a great friend. His positive attitude and zest for life were second to none. You could count on him to help a friend in need as he offered words of encouragement and support always with a humorous tone to lighten the mood. Our paths only crossed a few times since we left high school but I will always remember him fondly. I am praying for his family, especially those precious little girls he left behind. RIP Brad! Love and prayers to you and all your friends and family.

“ I don't think there was one person out there that wasn't shocked by this news. We have all been through a series of emotions without a clear conclusion. Brad you are loved by so many people in Wyoming and Iowa. I will miss your upbeat attitude and zest for fun times. I wish we had another opportunity to see Slipknot and hang with Chris and the guys. My heartfelt condolences go out to each and every person that has been affected by this situation. RIP my friend.

“ Not many people can light up a room with a smile, but Brad could, no matter how big the room was. He was always good for a hug, a smile, a laugh, a joke and word of encouragement if the situation called for it!
You will be missed Brad.
May God wrap you and your family in his arms and provide a level of comfort that only HE is capable of!
Lots of hugs and love to Jill and the girls!

“ Such an unfortunate situation...

Brad brought laughter to many lives. He was the life of every party and was a very caring guy. I will miss seeing Brad on my trips back to Wyoming.

My laughter has turned to tears for now, but I will always remember Brad in a happy way and will smile when I think of him. May all Brad's wonderful qualities live on through his beautiful daughters.

“ Dear Jill:

I was saddened to read your husband's obituary in the newspaper. I am sure your loss is a great one, both for you and for your daughters. My thoughts are with you at this time, and I hope your friends and family are a comfort to you.

As always, if there is anything I can do now or in the future, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Sincerely,

John Nesbitt

“ Brad - I wish I had the chance to tell you how much I appreciated your big grin. You would show up to head to S. Morrill and you would always make me smile. My life was enriched by working all those years with you. I want your girls to know that you were so proud of them. I loved his stories about what you both were up to. Your Dad was a fun co-worker and respected by so many of us. I will miss him too!

“ I hadn't seen Brad for decades but I do remember how nice he was. I'd known him since kindergarten and he lived on the same street as me growing up. There were many of us in the same class (1985) on the same street, I think if I recall close to a dozen. I remember him as one of the good guys. It saddens me to see him go, but at the same time I am thankful to God for putting him in my life if only just briefly.

Shine on!

“ The Brad I knew was the "King of Cool", as I called him one day shortly after meeting him in high school, and he quickly agreed. A beautiful young man, ahead of us a couple of years in maturity and humor, thinking of him having to leave his young family behind gives me a broken heart, for both him and his family. I hope you find peace soon.
