“ I was so sorry to read of the death of Carolyn. She was a dear friend. I was her visisting teacher for many years and always enjoyed visiting with her in her home. We shared the same birthdate. Please know that I am saddened with her passing. I pray that her last days were peaceful. With deepest sympathy, Thelma Perryman

“ I send my condolences, and this thought

*I know that our saviour weeps also;
He grieves at your anguish and pain.
And his persence soothes your parched ,barren heart.
Like the soft gentle sweep of spring rain.*

*Oh, you will miss your lifelong companion,
But you know that your life must go on.
So you cling to the hand of our saviour and friend,
for with him... You're never alone!*

“ Dear Family,

I am Edgar Nelsen's granddaughter. My maiden name is Heather Nelsen.

I am very sorry to hear of Aunt Caroline's passing.

I can remember when we would come down to her house for a visit. It was always a relaxing & wonderful time. She was a very sweet lady.

You all are in my thought and prayers.

“ I'm sorry to hear about, Caroline. Remembering her puts a smile on my face, she was just that type of person. Always ready to listen or help when needed. She was very gracious when we came to visit always thinking of each one of us. She is at peace now and in God's arm's. Thank-You God for letting us know Caroline.
