

Catherine Cardaropoli

May 14, 1935 - January 26, 2010

TORRINGTON, WYOMING.....Memorial services for CATHERINE “JEAN” CARDAROPOLI 74, will be held at 2pm Friday, January 29, 2010 at the Colyer Funeral Home Chapel with Reverend Tom Kittleman officiating. Burial will follow in the Valley View Cemetery. Jean died at her daughter's home in Torrington on January 26, 2010. Cremation has taken place. Memorials may be made to either Pet Pals or Waggin’ Tails Animal Shelter. Arrangements are under the direction of the Colyer Funeral Home and friends may send condolences to the family at www.colyerfuneralhome.com. Jean was born May 14, 1935 in Lansing, Michigan the daughter of William and Auttie (Wilcox) Hillcoat. The family moved to California where she grew up and received her education. After graduating from high school she worked as a clerk for ten years for the Orange County Juvenile Court helping with mentally challenged children. She moved with her second husband to Torrington, Wyoming in 1968 for four years and then back to California. She divorced and then met and married Anthony Cardaropoli on August 24, 1980 in Santa Anna, California. They later moved to Torrington where she worked various jobs mainly waitressing at Little Moon Lake Supper Club. Tony died in 2000 and she retired that year as well. Jean enjoyed bowling and crafts mainly wood or painting. For ten years she was a member of the Motorcycle Association in California. Jean is survived by two daughters, Cam Seigal of Torrington, Wyoming, and Lauri Zumwalt of Brady, Nebraska; five grandchildren; and ten great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; and her husband Tony.

“ Cam, we just heard about your mom. My, but such a young age. We know the hole left in your heart. But, To be with the Lord is such a good and comforting thought. There are no words to express our thankfulness for your friendship and care of our mother and father the last 10 years of their life. May you and your sister be in God's perfect peace. Blessings Roger and Darla

“ Mean Jean didn't have a mean bone in her body. Always ready with a quick retort and a good joke. The memories will remain. Just feel blessed that I was able to know her. She will truly be missed.
