Cindy passed away Monday, November 26, 2018 at Regional West Medical Center in Scottsbluff, Nebraska from her long battle with cancer. Cremation has taken place. Refreshments will be served after the service at the LaGrange Community Building. Cindy's favorite color is blue and the family invites you to wear blue in attendance. There will also be teal ribbons to wear for Ovarian Cancer Awareness, they will be provided at the service. There is a memorial setup at the Longhorn Grocery and Café in LaGrange, cards (etc.) may be mailed to Meggan at PO Box 184, LaGrange, WY 82221. The family asks all that wish to attend and celebrate Cindy's life with her family and friends.

Cindy was born August 19, 1948 in Cheyenne, Wyoming to Everett and Anna Clason. She graduated from East High School in 1966 in Cheyenne. She played softball and was very active in 4-H. After high school she married James O'Dell in June of 1966 and they had three children, James, Beth and Cameron. She worked at multiple truck stops and diners as well as the phone company in Cheyenne and Laramie. Not long after the passing of her husband James in 1975 she and her children moved to Hill City, South Dakota where she worked at the Carousel Café. In March of 1981 she married Wes Wilson and soon had another daughter Meggan. The family moved to Mesa,

Arizona for a few years and then moved to the family property in LaGrange, Wyoming. In February of 1989. Not long after Wes and Cindy bought the grocery store in town and added a café in the back. The Longhorn Grocery and Café was brought to life and Cindy alongside her family worked there and served the town of LaGrange for fifteen years. They were also the proprietors of the Dead Horse Saloon in LaGrange until the passing of Wes in 2001. Cindy sold the Dead Horse Saloon and soon to follow the Longhorn as well. She then worked for the post offices of LaGrange, Albin and Pine Bluffs until October 2018. She was and active member of the LaGrange community helping with the LaGrange Mini Fair and was a vital role in the American Auxiliary. She was awarded the Woman of the Year award for her contributions there in 2002. Cindy also stood on the Goshen County School Board with the main intention of presenting the LaGrange/Bear Creek graduates she watched grow with their diplomas, to include her own daughter Meggan.

Cindy is survived by her son James O'Dell, daughter Beth (O'Dell) Pafford, daughter-in-law Stephanie (Muvinel) Roberts, daughter Meggan Wilson, sixteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren and Floyd. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband James O'Dell and Wes Wilson; her sisters Judy Vitale and Francy Allen; her brother Clason; her son Cameron O'Dell and her granddaughter Brogann Stees.

“ So sorry to hear about Cindy. Cindy was one of the greatest lady's ever. Over the years she helped me a lot. I first meet Cindy and Wess back in 1984 when I had a Lodge north of Keystone SD. She filled in as a waitress. In 1990, I bought the Trail Bar in Torrington, and Cindy and Wess walked in. They had movrd to Lagrange, not long before that. Cindy went to work at the Kings Inn in Torrington. In 1996, I bought the Stockers Club in Morrill, NE. I started doing Food Catering. Cindy was a very key person. She was alway their was able to supply me with plenty of help from her Family. Beth, Jim, and Grandkids to freinds she knew. She was a great lady and a great freind. Cindy will dearly be missed. She Loved all her family very much, and Lagrange. Cindy rest in peace, And prayers to all the family. Stan Howe
