Dana was born September 19, 1960 in Torrington the daughter of William and Helen (Bolger) Stoeger. She grew up and received her education in Torrington. She was a fun loving woman who had a lot to live for. Her only wishes in life were to see her son succeed and be with her husband. Most of all she wanted a grandchild to love and care for. She had so much love to give. She also wanted to go back to college for nursing. Dana's favorite hobbies were to cook and be outside working in her garden. She loved spending time with family and being with her dog, Larz. She was a very determined, loving person with a heart of gold. She wanted so badly to be free from pain and go back to work. Her dream of being a truck driver was ended due to a terrible trucking accident while working for Simplot in Torrington. Dana is survived her husband William; son, Noah Stoeger and his wife Destiny of Torrington; parents, William and Helen Stoeger of Torrington; two sisters, Deborah Thornton of Morrill, Nebraska, and Diane Kennedy and her
