Darlene joined her forever sweetheart on December 30, 2014 after a long separation. She was born on July 22, 1939 in Minatare, Nebraska the daughter of David and Anna (Gabel) Eskam. She grew up and received her education; graduating from Minatare High School. Darlene married George Fritzler in 1959 and the couple moved to Torrington, Wyoming where they spent most of their lives; raising three children, and Darlene worked as a clerk at several businesses in Torrington then retired from the United Telephone Company. Darlene enjoyed indulging in her favorite activity, Dutch Hops, with her one true love, George. Darlene has spent the last two years of her life in Washington State with her youngest son and his family; spending time with her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Darlene is survived by her son John of Torrington, Wyoming and her son Paul (Penny) of Marysville, Washington; as well as grandchildren and great grandchildren whom she loved dearly. She is also survived by two sisters; nieces and nephews; including one niece, Diana Schmall, who was very close to Darlene, filling a “daughter” spot in Darlene’s life. She was preceded in death by her parents, two siblings, a son, David, and her beloved husband, George.
