

David Poage

April 7, 1950 - April 4, 2012

David Alan Poage, 61, of Arkansas City, KS, went home to be with his Lord and Savior on Wednesday, April 4, 2012. Celebration Services will be held at the First Baptist Church at Lusk, Wyoming on Friday, April 13, 2012 at 2pm. Burial of his earthly tent will be in the Jireh Cemetery, Niobrara County, Wyoming following the services. Visitation hours will be held at the Colyer Funeral Home in Torrington on Thursday, April 12, 2012 from 4 to 7pm and other viewing hours will be held in Lusk at the church from 11am until service time. Memorials have been established to either the King Institute or Gospel for Asia. Contributions may be made through the funeral home.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Colyer Funeral Home and on-line condolences may be left for the family at www.colyerfuneralhome.com David was born April 7, 1950, in Torrington, Wyoming to David True and Gertrude (Carroll) Poage. He was reared and educated in Keeline, Wyoming, graduating from high school in Lusk, Wyoming in 1968. He later graduated from the University of Wyoming with a degree in chemical engineering. David married Sharla (Bellomy) on November 13, 1976, in Laramie, Wyoming. The couple worked their cattle ranch in Wyoming, then the family moved to Rawlins Wyoming where David worked for Sinclair Oil, before moving to Arkansas City to work for the Total Refinery in 1992. After the refinery closed David began work for General Electric Jet Engine Services at Strother Field as an engine mechanic. David was a faithful member of the Calvary Chapel. Those left to cherish his memory include his wife Sharla; two daughters

Rebecca and Rachael all of the home; his mother Gertrude Poage and step-father David Eddington of Torrington, and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his father, and sister Judy Wright.

Tribute Wall

RR

“ So sorry to hear about Davy! Grew up with him at Keeline. Prayers to all.

Retha (Butler) Reinke - April 04, 2012 at 12:00 AM

KG

“ To The Family of David Alan Poage, I would like to extend my condolences to you all. During difficult times such as these, we could all use a little comfort. I can say that although I did not have the personal privilege of knowing Mr. Poage, I too know the pain of losing someone whom you love so dearly. I have and still am able to find comfort through God's promise of a resurrection by means of His son Christ Jesus. Very soon Jesus will "call out to all those in their memorial tombs and they will hear his voice and come out."- John 5:28,29 What joyous time we have to look forward to when we can reunite with all those we've lost in death....to be able hold and embrace them once again. This is a promise that I hold close to my heart and mind. I hope you will do the same as you dwell kindly in my thoughts and prayers. May you find peace.

Karen Golson - April 04, 2012 at 12:00 AM

LD

“ My Condolences go out to the Poage family for their loss. I really enjoyed David and family. I also graduated from NCHS 20 years after David and attended Calvary Chapel in Arkansas City with him and his family when I lived there. He was a good example of a Christian father and husband. I know he will be missed.

Lance Daniels - April 04, 2012 at 12:00 AM