“ We did not know Delbert, but are friends of several members of his family and we want to express our sincere sympathy to you all. It is so hard to lose a loved one who had so much life to live and so much love to give. I know you all will miss him dearly. As hard as it may be at this time, with the strength of God and family at your side, time will heal the pain of losing Delbert and will help you to remember and treasure all the good times you all shared as a family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ Delbert, my loved brother, I'm so sorry we did not get to say goodbye. I will always remember our lives together as a child to being a man of 49. Know matter if we did not see each other all the time, you gave me strengh to cope with things I could not understand. You held me tight in your arms and told me it would be allright. In your semi truck, you drove a lot down those long roads, it's time to stop and take a nap, for the Lord you wanted to see he reached down his hand and said Delbert you're comming with me.

Your Loving Sis, Debora and family.

“ I am sorry for the loss of your son, your brother, your father, your uncle, your friend. May it ease your hurt and pain to remember the treasured moments of childhood, holidays and family gatherings that you shared with Delbert. To release your grief, family discussions of your memories will be helpful, and will bring your family closer together. Tears in your heart will put smiles on your face when memories are shared. May God place special care on your family at this time.

“ Delbert was my soulmate, my partner, my friend. He was a charmer, a lover, a scamster. My daughter said he could charm the pants off a nun, his brother in law added and make her think it was godly. I will never forgive the fact I was excluded from the family within 3 hours after I found him dead, I was no longer allowed any information or to make any arrangements. I want to thank the family for allowing me to sit in the back row at the funeral.. and all the tramua he went through as a child, he shared all the stories,,remember I was his counselor two years before we started our life together. So sleep well, and know you did what he wanted. I can,because I gave him everything I could and loved him unconditionally, something he needed.. ttfnmf and may god have mercy on your souls
