Like so many others, I am deeply saddened by the loss of Dennis. He was my neighbor for several years, and we frequently crossed paths in the alley or while out shopping.

Dennis had an incredible gift—he would always say, "It looks like you could use a hug," exactly on the days I needed one most. I used to joke that he had ESP. We could easily take up an entire grocery store aisle just catching up, and his stories never failed to make me laugh endlessly.

Hearing that this amazing man has "gotten his wings" brings both a smile to my face and tears to my eyes. I know he entered God's Kingdom with the biggest pair of wings possible—though I imagine they have a few imperfections, because that's just who Dennis was.

Rest in peace, my friend

Blessed,
