Donna was born April 23, 1947 the daughter of Hugh and Evelyn (Woolums) McConnell. She was the youngest of eight siblings. She was a very family oriented person with an outgoing personality and contagious laughter. She was a single mother of three and a very hard worker. She loved to play all sorts of games, a favorite of hers was hitting the slot machines. She played pinochle in a card club for many years with her sister Jean and friends of her mother Evelyn. She loved her family and adored her grandchildren and great grandchild.

Donna is survived by two daughters Gail Nichol and her husband Jon of Garden City, Utah and Ginger Moore of Scottsbluff, Nebraska; a son Greg Moore of Scottsbluff; granddaughters Heather Moore of Scottsbluff, Heidi Moore of Torrington, Wyoming, McKenzie Nichol of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Soraya Moore of Torrington; grandsons Chad Nichol of Salt Lake City, and Tyler Nichol of Garden City; a great grandson Dreyson Shockley of Scottsbluff; sisters Eva Lue McConnell of Henderson, Nevada, Linda (Jim) Wallace of Las Vegas, Nevada, Jean Hoover of Torrington, Eloise Petraick of Layton, Utah, and Joyce Mong of Salt Lake City; and a brother Bill (Janie) McConnell of Fremont, Nebraska. She was preceded in death by her parents and one sister. Special thanks to her dear friend Lorrie Wright and the staff at Regional West Medical Center for taking care of her during her last days here with us.

“ *My mom was and still is the best mother I could have.. No matter my mistakes she wrapped her arms around. Me and without saying a word I felt her love and knew she understood... She NEVER judged or gave up on me.
I LOVE YOU MOM ... I COULD USE YOUR HUG.* 🌸
