Ed was born July 12, 1921 on a farm south of Torrington, Wyoming the son of Edgar and Kittie (Putney) DeBrot. He grew up and received his education at country schools in the Huntley, Wyoming area and graduated for Torrington High School in 1939. He attended Teacher's College in Lincoln, Nebraska for one year before entering the service in 1943 and was discharged in 1946. He then farmed with his father in the Huntley area until 1952 when he entered into business with his father-in-law in Lloyd's Tire Store. After it burned down in 1962 he started Ed's Tire Store. In 1969 he went to work for the State of Wyoming Revenue Department where he worked as a sales tax collector. He retired in 1986. Ed was a member of Masonic Lodge where he served as Worshipful Master Mason in 1967-68. He worked with the Demolay Boys for several years and was awarded the Legion of Honor Degree from them. He served as Mayor of Torrington from 1966 to 1968. He loved to travel and they spent many winters in Arizona. Ed is survived by his wife Darlene of Torrington; a daughter, Marge McCoy and her husband Terry of Cyprus, Texas; a sister Edna Ruth Riggs of Mesa, Arizona; four grandchildren; and five great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; two sons, Thomas Edgar and Robert Wayne; seven sisters; and one brother.
