“ It seems I knew Dora and Ben all my life but I just learned they moved to Torrington one year after I was born. We moved to Oregon when I was six but always visited every two years when I was a child and then of course there were the cards and correspondence. If my dad, Ruben, was still alive he would want me to speak of his love on the Schlager family's behalf even if it is late! Bless you dear, quite, sweet, woman, wife, mother, friend!

“ Dora was a quiet sincere, lovely woman who always knew you and celebrated everyone she knew by sending a birthday card yearly. A simple Christian mission that brought joy to all.

We send our sincere condolences to all of Dora's family.

“ To the Dora Zulauf family, so sorry to hear about our dear Dora, friend of the Urbanek family. Many sweet memories living across the street from them, many talks across the fence with each other my mom and dad. What friends we have had over the years growing up with all of the Zulaufs, they were true good people many laughs and catching up with the local news. Dora will be missed but not forgotten, because friends don't forget friends. RIP lovely Dora my friend. Heavens gained a true angel. God Bless, Theresa (Urbanek) Madsen and families.
