

Eleanor Barnhisel Weber

February 5, 1916 - March 27, 2007

TORRINGTON WYO.....Memorial services for ELEANOR FRIEDA BARNHISEL WEBER, 91, will be held at 11am, Monday April 9, 2007 at the Colyer Funeral Home Chapel in Torrington with the Reverend Mary Jellison officiating. Eleanor died March 27, 2007 at Community Hospital in Torrington, WY., and cremation has taken place. Memorials can be made to Special Touch at Community Hospital. She was born February 5, 1916, the daughter of Willis Faye and Bessie Belle (Kehew) Barnhisel in Harvey, IL. The family moved by railroad and wagon to Baggs, WY. to homestead in 1919. Eleanor attended school in Green River and Baggs, WY. She graduated from the School of Cosmetology in Laramie, WY. in 1934. She then married Lawrence H. Weber in Craig, CO. on September 17, 1935. Eleanor lived many places throughout Wyoming and Colorado, as she and her husband owned L. H. Weber Contractor and Divide Construction Co. doing highway work. Along with her cosmetology profession, she also kept books for their construction company. After Lawrence passed away in 1991, she lived with her daughter and son-in-law Bev and Ted Surrency. In 1996 they moved to Shoshoni, WY. where she worked in the family business, the Yellowstone Drug Store. She then moved to Torrington with the family in 2002. She was active in the Baggs Pioneer Homemaker Club and held many county and state offices in the Carbon County Homemakers. She was also active in the Soroptmist Club. She is survived by her daughter Beverly Surrency; a sister June Rasmussen of Cody, WY.; a brother, Norman Barnhisel of Rawlins; one grandson, Greg Tanner of Green River; one granddaughter, Raelee Tanner of Cheyenne; three great-grandchildren, Eric Tanner and his wife Janelle of Green River, Amanda Grinder and husband Dan of Casper, and Angela Anderson of the family home in Torrington, WY., and three great-grea grand children, Gypsy and Starla Grinder of Casper, and Craig Tanner of Green River. Eleanor was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, and son-in-law, Ted Surrency.

>