“ Jeanne and Janet. We were sad to learn of Eleanor's death. We shared so many wonderful times with her, in church, Saints and Sinners, and those rowdy times in the choir loft. I went to several women's retreats with her and it was always an experience! We do want you to know we remember her fondly with lots of laughs, some serious stuff, and always a lot of fun. Hugs to you from us. Jo and Roy

I will never forget how excited the kids would be when I said we were going to Aunt Eleanor's. They loved playing with her kittens which she always seemed to have no matter what time of year we would go. She was a wonderful lady who will be greatly missed.
