“ My husband and I would like to express our sincere condolences to the family and friends of your beloved Eleanor. The grief felt when we lose a loved one may seem unbearable at times. At such times we have gone to the loving comfort of God's Word, for he too, feels our pain, when going through such sorrow. (Psalm 34:18) May you also draw comfort in the many wonderful memories you all made and shared together-cherish them always.

“ Donna and I would like to express our sincere condolences to Bob and the family of Eleanor. Such a courageous woman and inspiration to all who knew her! God has given Eleanor a new body, a better body, one that can never grow old, never know disease, never suffer pain, and can never die. God has also given you the memories of her. Remember how happy she made you and also how happy you made her. If life is measured by what's left behind... the life of Eleanor was truly a successful one.
