Elsie was born January 31, 1939 in Torrington, Wyoming the daughter of Carl and Katie (Hill) Hansen. She grew up on the T Kettle Ranch north of Torrington and received her education in Torrington. She married Cecil Rose on September 9, 1955 in Lusk, Wyoming. They owned and operated the Empire Ranch north of Henry, Nebraska all their lives. They raised and trained Morgan horses and Hereford cattle later switching to Texas longhorns. After Cecil died in 2009 Elsie remained on the ranch and continued the longhorn breeding program. She also worked at the Torrington Livestock Auction and in later years at Wheelers (Country General), McNamee Auctions, Food Pride, DSI, and was a para at Chalk Butte School. She judged (chickens, rabbits, and other small animals) at county fairs in Nebraska and Wyoming.

Elsie was a 4-H leader for fifty-four years and was named outstanding leader several times. She was affiliated with the Wyoming Morgan Horse Association, Wyoming Texas Longhorn Association, Sheep Creek Women's Club, and Farm Bureau. She also helped with the senior center garage sales among various other volunteer endeavors.

Elsie is survived by daughters Sena (Russ) Pearson of Lusk, Wyoming, and Janet (Marvin) Mueller of Sutherland, Nebraska; sons John (Kerri) Rose of Lingle, Wyoming, Bruce (Debbie) Rose and Gary (Christie) Rose all of Gordon, Nebraska; an "adopted son" Mark (Mashelle) Barlow of Eden, Idaho; eleven grandchildren; six great grandchildren; and one great-great grandchild. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Cecil; brothers Carl, Glen, Dewey, Lyle, Elmer, and Gerald Hansen; sisters Louella Jackson, Phyllis Havelly, Shirley Buskohl and Velva Ruth Hansen; and two granddaughters Jenna Rose and Brittany Mueller.

I have so many fond memories of Elsie. She hauled our horse judging team all over the state of Wyoming and had a way of making everything fun. She was always there to help or just listen, laugh and teach. We have been blessed to have her as part of our lives. My prayers go out to all in your family, thank you for sharing her with us.
