“ My sincere condolences to all of her family. I knew Frances from our college days at the University of Wyoming. We didn't keep track of one another, however, I still remember her as a very wonderful and caring person. Sometimes I download the Torrington Telegram and I came across her obituary, even though I never really knew her married name. I knew her as Francis Potter. I'm one year older than she was. May the Lord have her in his fold and may she rest in peace!
