

Frank Weyrich

December 19, 1932 - April 15, 2025

A Funeral Mass for Frank Weyrich will be held at 11:00 AM on Tuesday, April 22, 2025, at Saint Rose Catholic Church in Torrington, with Father Ray Moss officiating. Burial will follow at Valley View Cemetery. A viewing will be held on Monday, April 21, 2025, from 3:00-5:00 PM at Colyer Funeral Home, followed by a Rosary at 6:00 PM at Saint Rose Catholic Church. Frank passed away on Tuesday, April 15, 2025, at Goshen Care Center. Frank was born on December 19, 1932, east of Sturgis, SD, the ninth child of Marguerite and Jacob Weyrich. He grew up on the family farm and attended country school 20 miles east of Sturgis through the 8th grade. He later attended high school in Sturgis and Vale, SD. On June 16, 1954, Frank married his sweetheart, Karen Callanan. Together, they shared nearly 71 years of marriage and raised four children: Jim (Fran), Frankie (Maureen), Terri (Jim House), and Rod (Lori). After leaving the farm, Frank worked as a mechanic for several years before joining Lamb Construction in Torrington, WY, in 1958 as a diesel mechanic/welder and fabricator. He worked for Lamb

Construction for nearly 40 years, with his family moving to 19 different towns throughout Wyoming due to various road jobs. In 1970, they settled in Hawk Springs, where Frank worked as a mechanic in the Hawk Springs school gymnasium. After a few years, he also worked for Scott & Son. Frank retired at the age of 64 but continued running his personal business, "Weyrich Repair," in Yoder until his late 80s.

Frank was an active member of the Hawk Springs Fire Department for 37 years, and he also served on the Fire District Board for many years. He was a dedicated member of Saint Rose Catholic Church and volunteered for various community projects, including repairs and lawn maintenance for the Hawk Springs Community Building.

He cherished spending time with his children, their spouses, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, attending their activities near and far. One of his favorite pastimes was taking road trips to Deadwood.

Frank is survived by his loving wife, Karen; their four children; grandchildren Jake and Kyle Weyrich, Elizabeth Bouchard (Ben), Gavin, Nathan, and Daniel Weyrich, Sheila Laleman (Kevin), Melissa House, Emily Haefele (Randall), Jenna Krul (Ryan), and Shelby Clason (Chance); great-grandchildren Raelee Krul, Alex Laleman, Calvin Krul, Joelle Haefele, Owen Laleman, Griffin Haefele, Murphy Clason, Harrison Clason, and Paul Bouchard; and one sibling, Gladys Cox Brown. He was preceded in death by his parents, his siblings Louise Christenson, Vic Weyrich, Helen Komes, Clara Knutson, Leo Weyrich, Paul Weyrich, Dorothy Dunn, Mary Rosser, and two infant sisters, as well as one granddaughter, Karla House.

The family kindly requests that memorial contributions in Frank's memory be directed to Saint Rose Catholic Church or the Hawk Springs Fire Department.

Funeral arrangements are under the care of Colyer Funeral Home.

“ It was always a pleasure to visit Uncle Frank when we were little and his children were our age. Later on we would try to stop and visit when we (Sarah and I) were passing through their southeast corner of Wyoming and say Hi. He always wanted us to stay for a spell and visit.

“ Dear Karen and family,
I am so sorry to learn of Frank's death. My dad, among many, many others, always spoke very highly of Frank. Both my parents thought a lot of him. You can be assured he has left a wonderful legacy. It is very tough to lose a guy whose shoes are hard to fill. However, he and Karen made a wonderful family and I am confident each of you will carry on his integrity.
