“ I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Kath and send my condolences to the Kath Family. I had the pleasure of assisting Mr. Kath with his benefit needs, as I had worked for the company who administered his company's benefits. He was always friendly and could make the day a brighter day for whomever he spoke with. Very caring and with a heart of gold ... I will miss Mr. Kath.

Rest in peace my friend.

*Hugs,

“ My deepest condolences to Kirms' family. I used to work at the company that administered Kirm's benefits. I got to know him by helping him, as a customer service rep. Kirm would call all the time and he became part of the "family", he was one of the few people we serviced and knew by name. He was a great guy. He would call and make our day. He was never upset, and would always somehow spark a smile on our faces.

Kirm, I know you are reading this from somewhere in heaven. Thank you for being a great guy!

Hugs,

Cesar

“ My condolence to the Kath family, in this time of sadness from the lost of a loved one, we can always trust that Jehovah has the answer to the questions that puzzle us. Have you ever ask: Is death the end of it all? or is there something else after death?...The Bible clears up any questions we might have about death. (Ecclesiastes 9:5,10). the Bible also shows that there is hope for persons who have faith. (John11:25)

May you find comfort in Jehovah's word the Bible.

“ Very sorry to read of the passing of your dear loved one Garrett. Life is such a precious gift and yet so short-lived for the time we exist. I am writing to share a few words of comfort and encouragement from the source of trtuth the bible.
God holds out a wonderful hope for all those in the grave. At John 11:25 Jesus said "I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE. HE THAT EXERCIES FAITH IN ME, EVEN THOUGH HE DIES, WILL COME TO LIFE."
The nine accounts of ones in the bible who were resurrected are a guarantee that the resurrection of others is possible. God can bring back the billions of dead he holds within his perfect memory. (John 5-28,29) What a blessed reason to hope in God!
With the gift of your memories of Garrett they will bring you great joy. When a loved one becomes a memory that memory turns into a treasure.
May you and yours lean on Jehovah God for the strength you need at this sad time. (Psalms 83-18)
