

Gary Lee Flock

January 11, 1941 - January 10, 2024

No services will be held at this time for GARY LEE FLOCK, 82, who died at his home on January 10, 2024. Cremation has taken place. Memorials may be given to Goshen County 4-H. The Colyer Funeral Home assisted the family with the cremation arrangements. Condolences may be sent to www.colyerfuneralhome.com.

Gary was born January 11, 1941 in Scottsbluff, Nebraska the son of Theodore and Lillian (Altig) Flock. The family lived north of Morrill, Nebraska. In 1944 they moved north of Lingle, Wyoming and he grew up and attended school in Lingle, graduating in 1960. While in high school Gary enjoyed 4-H stock judging events and one event won him and four others a trip to Chicago to represent Wyoming at the National 4-H judging contest. Gary attended Goshen County Community College for two years and he then went to work at the Turner Ranch in Jackson Hole, Wyoming until he was drafted into the Army. He returned in 1965 from his tours of Vietnam to the family farm and farmed until his death. Gary enjoyed pitching horse shoes, square dancing, and golf. He was involved in Suffolk sheep and selling of the sheep at the annual sheep sale. He was a member of the Stock Growers Association and was involved in the lamb BBQ at the Goshen County Fair.

Gary is survived by his sister-in-law Beverly Flock of Torrington; sisters Sharon Utter of Wheatland, Wyoming and Theil Ryan of Torrington; a niece

Sandra Utter of Pine Bluffs, Wyoming; and nephews Wade (Angie) Utter of Wheatland and Shawn Ryan of Lingle, Wyoming. He was preceded in death by his parents; his brother O'Leary; and brothers-in-law Alan Utter and Larry Ryan.

“ Sorry for your loss. I enjoyed the stories Gary could tell when he came in to the Lingle Sr Center. He brought several puzzles and enjoyed watching the progress of the puzzles being worked on.
