Eva was born June 5, 1934 in Cottier, Wyoming, just outside of Torrington, the daughter of Angelo and Mary (Gonzalez) Velasquez. She was one of eleven children. She attended school in Torrington at The Columbia School. In 1953, Eva met Joe Reyes and the two were married May 25, 1954. The couple resided in Torrington and brought to this union five children. Joe was truly the love of her life. Eva did custodial work at St. Joseph's and then later at Torrington High School. She retired in 1998.

Eva was always there to listen when you needed someone to talk to. She was the type of person when you met her you loved her. Eva and Joe enjoyed sitting on their porch and enjoying time together. Family was very important to Eva. She loved all of her nieces and nephews.

Eva enjoyed cross-stitch, word search and garage sales. She had a collection of Saints. She was also the world's best cook...especially Mexican food. She never used a recipe and never cooked anything the same way twice, but everything she cooked tasted amazing.

Eva was a member of St. Rose Catholic Church.

Survivors include her husband Joe of Torrington; son John (Pam) Reyes of Casper; daughter Debbie (Greg) Reid of Casper; daughter Irene (Garry) Reese of Torrington; son Michael Reyes of Cheyenne; daughter Lydia (Sam) Garcia of Clovis, New Mexico; sister Lucy Barajas; brother Steve Velasquez; brother Frank Velasquez; ten grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren.

Preceding her in death were her parents; sisters, Mary, Angie, Betty, Mildred and brothers, Albert, John and Fred.
