George was born May 12, 1933 to Godfrey and Esther Ochsner. He was born in his original homestead house 20 miles north of Torrington, Wyoming. George's education consisted of attending several country schools in the Burge Community. George was married 64 years to the woman he adored, Ruby Arnold Ochsner. They set a great example of Christian love and marriage for many. Their union brought four children: Tena (Elden) Baldwin, Rodney (Deb) Ochsner, Dixie (Steve) Roth, and Blake (Chrissy) Ochsner. The love of ranching was instilled in all four children. George was blessed with eight grandchildren: Erin (Jeff) Hinton, Jason (Shannon) Baldwin, Jeremy (Angela) Ochsner, Vanessa (Chris) Crisman, Sarena (Cody) Assmann, Rustin (Britte) Roth, Katie (Devin) Martin, B.W. (Terra) Ochsner. He adored his fourteen great grandchildren and was looking forward to welcoming two more this summer. George was blessed to still have his three siblings: Jack

Ochsner, Delores Hatch, and Marge Smith. George will be remembered as a hard-working, honest, family and cattleman. He was always striving to improve his ranch through land and cattle. His great knowledge will be missed by many. George never knew a stranger! George was recognized for many things but being selected to the Hereford Hall of Fame, in Kansas City, and having the ranch chosen for the 2020 Wyoming Environmental Stewardship Award were among his favorites. George was involved with many Ag related organizations and church. George's great insight, love of life, love of family and friends, will be missed by many. His legacy will continue through his children and grandchildren! His final words would be: "Now everyone get out and get to work!"
