“ I wish I would have been notified as well as other cousins in Wheatland. We certainly would have been there. Condolences to all, my thoughts and prayers are with you! I agree that she was one of the hardest working women I have ever seen. One of a kind that's for sure! God's Blessings today and always! Love you all and Rest In Peace Jerri till we meet again love you!

“ My Aunt Jerri was the salt of the earth. I have never seen a more hard working woman. She was very kind and I loved to hear her laugh. Her suffering is over and she's now in her "happy place". She has a lot of family up there to enjoy. I love you. No more chasing cows. Rest. Dianne Fabricius-Luberda.
