“ We send our sincere condolences to all of Helen’s family. I (Karin) meet Helen at the bridge table and spent many wonderful years playing our favorite game together. What a huge joy for me.

I held Helen in high regard and she will always hold so many memories in my heart.

Our last visit was at the care center and we were planning a way to play another another bridge game there.

Our love & prayers sent.

“ It was a joy to meet Helen and visit with her while my mother was her roommate at Goshen Healthcare Community. It was fun to hear stories about her growing up in the Yoder and Huntley area. She was a force and she will be missed. God's blessings to all her family.
