“ I am so sorry for your loss. Helen was very sweet to me when I went into her room to do anything for her. She used to smile at me for some of the silly things I would do in the dining room. I tried, especially in the last 3 or so months to make sure to say good night to her and give her a kiss on the forehead. Even if I wasn't the one who helped her to bed. She will always remind me of what a Classy Lady should be like.
