“ We Will Cherish every memory in our heart forever that was shared with Aunt Inez, especially when we were able to go visit her. Her Hospitality was outstanding and no matter how many people their were, she always had enough food for everybody, she made sure of that her tortillas will be missed. Auntie we will carry you in our hearts forever. Our condolences to the Flores Family we wish we could be there to hug all of you, but know we are praying for God to comfort you in this time of sorrow.
Love Greg and Stephanie Martinez 🙏

“ My grandma, as most grandmothers loved to feed whoever walked through her door. Many years ago when the family would gather, there would be so many of us in her home. grandma, the aunts and her sons wives would be in the kitchen cooking, the men visiting, everyone taking turns to eat at her table. Granddaughters taking shifts washing dishes and grandsons taking the great big piles of leftover food out to feed the neighborhood dogs. (Even the dogs down south were happy at grandmas). We always left grandmas with full stomachs, and great visits. At Christmas time all the cousins would take turns trying to find the ornaments on the tree that she made for each one of us. we would have singing and good food late into the night, then she would assign one or two of the grandkids to walk grandma Juana home. She was the only one in this world who called me Lisa... I'm sure all of her grandkids have a special memory of her and the time we had with her and in her home..and the memories we call our own and will always cherish. I love you grandma! Melissa “ Sending condolences and love to the Flores family and to all who knew and loved Aunt Inez. We will cherish the memories of the wonderful summers in Torrington and the warm welcome extended to our family. Aunt Inez was an integral part of the village it took to feed, care for, love and ingrain the true meaning of family that extends throughout each generation. What a beautiful legacy Auntie, and in true agreement, yours was a life well lived. Looking forward till we meet at Jesus' feet!

“ Inez was always a soft spoken and kind person. I knew her all my life. Growing up with all her kids, she treated me as one of her kids when I was around. Recently when I would come home to visit in Torrington, I would see her and she always recognized me. Such a nice person. I will miss her next time I visit Torrington. Rest in peace Inez. You're at home now.
