She worked at the First National Bank (now Points West) for over 30 years. Irma loved listening to German music and dancing around the house. She loved planting flowers in her yard, especially roses and geraniums. “ Sorry for your loss of Irma, I worked at the bank with Ira, back in the 60s, she taught me how to run the proof machine. She was a worker and so much fun, and she was always rite on. Alot of good memories and now with the angels. Gods Blessing to all her family.
