He spent his younger years growing up in Nebraska. Later he moved to Fort Collins, Colorado for a short time before moving to Cheyenne, Wyoming and finally settling in Torrington, Wyoming where he and his wife Carol retired. He has beloved children from his first marriage, Frank, Samantha, Bambi, Jackie and Jeremy. His children expanded the family to beautiful, loved grandchildren and great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews. He was fortunate to have his inner circle of love with his siblings, Bev, Danny, Pat, Rhonda and Richard. Above all he was truly a good man. He had a great sense of humor, was witty, liked to joke around and was very intelligent. As a kid he grew up hunting pheasants and deer. He loved nature, the outdoors and fishing. Animals held a very near and dear place in Jack's heart, especially his hunting dogs and all the pets he had in life. He and his wife Carol attended church at the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Cheyenne. Jack was a very well known and loved man by all those that knew him, especially his family. A phrase that he often used was "I love you so very much". His strength and determination are two things that he kept up until the very end, and that is to be admired. Jack is survived by his wife Carol, children; Frank, Samantha, Bambi, Jackie and Jeremy, stepchildren; Deana and Jennifer, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews and several siblings. Those welcoming him into Heaven include his parents Gail and Mary, mother-in-law Joyce, sister-in-law Linda, siblings, Bev and Pat and daughter Michelle.

“ Dad was a man who shared a great love for fishing and hunting,most his childhood life he lived and grew up in his home state of Nebraska,They lived on a farm on the outside of Kearney for a short time,moving from Broken Bow Nebraska to Comstock Nebraska! Dad loved fishing at the Comstock dam,he had a love for horses and motorcycles as well. He had a love For John Wayne and Westerns.When he would laugh he would always grab then end of his nose or what I believe to be a nervous habit,he would sit and hit his leg with his fist. He had a fear of the wind and storms but he loved nature.Its not the amount of time you get with a person,it's the memories built while they are around,Though you can't go back and change things nor bring a person back you have memories to carry you on. Dad I pray your soul is finally at peace,No more suffering,You can breathe again. I want to thank our step Mum Carol for loving our father way she did! You carried Dad so far Carol,you became his meaning for wanting to live and to fight so hard,he was strong and he was a fighter,though his fear inside stayed hid,he remained strong through it all.Love you always Daddy,Let's Go Fishing!!! Forever 73 and breathing freely!!! Sam starr
