“ Sending condolences to Janna’s family during this sad time. I recall so many laughs and fun times in our school years. Janna was always so kind, and her sunny disposition was infectious. Her smile that could light up a room, is now the light behind a bright star in heaven.

“ What an angel heaven gained. Jana had the best smile and her laughter was infectious. As the years of declining health changed how she could get around she still was such a happy person. Her and I shared a conversation just a few days before her passing and she was positive everything was gonna be better. Just a setback she said. She now rests, pain free in a beautiful place and prepares a place for her family to eventually join her. Loved her friendship. Rest easy girlfriend. Prayers for all to heal and remember the good things.
