Jeannette lived on the farm and her sister Joyce learned the fine art of thinning beets at an early age. The two were self-taught piano players. She also loved playing the accordion. She attended school in Huntley and Torrington, graduating in 1957. On October 7, 1956, she married LeRoy Schreiner at the First Congregational Church in Torrington and together they shared 68 years of love. From there she worked 25 years at Torrington Medical Group before her early retirement. Jeannette was a lifetime member of the First Congregational Church where she was baptized and confirmed. She taught Sunday school and sang in the church choir and was the church organist. She also served on the church board and was a friend to many. Jeannette and her husband LeRoy took up motorcycle riding and toured almost every state. They were past members of the Rollin Oldies Car Club and Wagon Wheels where they proudly drove their 1959 Ford. Other hobbies of hers included gardening, music, camping, but most of all spending time with her loving family and friends.

“ I was so sorry to hear on Jeannette’s passing. I loved working with her in my Dad’s office when I was a teenager. Such a great soul and she had the most beautiful blue eyes.
