

John Hamel

March 4, 1939 - March 1, 2011

JOHN J. HAMEL Born March 4, 1939 in Lynn, Massachusetts and died March 1, 2011 after a brief illness at the Swedish Medical Center in Denver, Colorado. He was born to Nora J. (Steeves) Hamel and Roy C. Hamel of Lynn, Massachusetts and was the youngest of eight children. John was a West Lynn native being born on Astor Street and eventually settling down on Dearborn Avenue. He was very involved with both his family and the community that included coaching West Lynn Pop Warner for ten years and eventually becoming President for two. He was a veteran of the USMC where he proudly served following the Korean Conflict as an MP serving throughout Europe. His career took shape in the trucking industry to eventually culminate in starting his own trucking company, Mass Petroleum Lines in Lynn, Massachusetts. He retired to Torrington, Wyoming in 2004 where he joined his daughter Stacia and son Nick. John leaves his sister Audry Pari of North Carolina; five sons Robert, John, Nick, Matthew, and Michael; three daughters, Debbie, Gloria, and Anastasia. He also leaves many grandchildren; three great grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents Nora and Roy; his brothers, Harold Steeves and Chester Hamel; his sisters Helen Constantino, Annabel Picardy, Corrine Peterson, and Oria Bartolomeo. At the request of the family in lieu of flowers donations can be made to the Brain Aneurysm Foundation at www.bafound.org. There will be an announcement later about memorial services for John in Lynn, Massachusetts. Arrangements are under the direction of the Colyer Funeral Home and friends may send condolences to the family at www.colyerfuneralhome.com.
