“ Eric and Family,

My most sincere sympathy to the family of Mr. Jenkins. Although I didn't have the privilage of knowing him personally, It's so sad when we have to say goodbye to our precious loved ones, but it's so comforting to know that death is likened to a deep sleep, and we know our loved ones are not suffering anywhere. We are so blessed to have the hope of the ressurection, the only remedy for death, and to know that our dear love ones may hear the voice of the son of God and come out of the memorial tombs. John5:28,29. I pray that our loving father Jehovah sustain you, and bring joy to your heart as you reflect on his wonderful promises.

“ Jodi, Jason, Jenni, Jordan,

You are in my prayers at this time. I know it is hard to say good bye to some so special, so at this time remember that you don't have to say "goodbye" but just "good night". Jesus knows your sorrow and I've requested that He hug you real close to Him at this time.

Much love and prayers, Rhonda Todd

“ *Do not stand
at my grave and weep.
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds
that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight
on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awake in the morning's hush
I am the soft uplifting rush of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry
I am not there.
I did not die.*

*Aunt Lynne and family,
My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. My sincerest condolences go out to you all. May God hold you close and carry you through this difficult time.

“ I'm so glad I got acquainted with John. He was a special person and did a beautiful job on my house. At the time he was building my garage I knew he didn't feel well but he did a good job anyway. We had some good chats over coffee and cinnamon rolls.

I know you will miss John but at least he won't be suffering any longer.
