“ While thinking about John these last few days something about him comes to my mind from time to time. Although Kodi and Kelli are in high school now and we didn't see much of him after he and Betty left the ranch, I'll always remember how he was when he stopped by to visit. Sometimes little kids are scared of some people because they might be loud or tease or try and pick them up. Not John. Our girls were never afraid of him when they were little. He would always come in and visit awhile until they got warmed up a bit and he would talk right to them. Then they were friends.

Another of my favorites from John! When Kelli was about three or four I suppose, we raised some chickens. We had an ornery white rooster. John happened to drive in at the time that rooster was chasing Kelli and I around in circles. She was screaming, frankly I was too. And I think John got just a little bit of pleasure out of that! But, he did save us from the rooster all the while he was chuckling. The rooster didn't last long after that.

“ In Sympathy. John and I rode the same school bus from the time he was in 6th. grade and I was in 5th., until he graduated from Veteran High School. Our families go back farther than that. We were so sorry to hear about John passing away. Strength is wished for all the family. Sincerely. Garold Wallace Newton.
