“Joyce;

We feel your sadness at this time with the loss of John. It was good to see him last year at Martha Heckman's funeral. John and I had a great time growing up together.

“Joyce, Laura, and Jeff,
Our hearts and prayers are with you as you go through the difficult times ahead. Don't forget to let the good memories come into your thoughts - like the many, many days at the lake so many years ago. John was a good man with the kids of all ages that were always around and there wasn't anything he wouldn't do for the kids - ours included. And that will be how I will always remember and honor John's memory.
In sincere friendship,
Marilyn

“Joyce, I reach out to you and your family at this time in your life where support is very important. John was what I consider a friend and we shared a good many confidences over the years. He was a good man and a caring man that will be missed by us all. I encourage you to keep the faith and extend my sincere sympathies to you.

“ Dear Joyce, Jeff, Laura and Family,

I wanted to express my deepest sympathy and concern for you and also share with you that death isn't the end. This is evident in the Bible in Scriptures like John 11 verses 11-14, 39, 43, where Jesus, upon learning of his friend Lazarus's death when he was on earth, said to those who were with him at the time: "Lazarus has fallen asleep I'm going to awaken him." To demonstrate to those who were with him that the dead are truly and simply sleeping till the last day when the resurrection will take place, Jesus went to the grave, where Lazarus was already buried for four days and called him, and surely enough Lazarus came out alive and well. What Jesus did then, will happen again when the resurrection starts in the last day when Jesus rules or governs the earth by means of God's Kingdom. (Daniel 2: verse 44); (Daniel 7: verses 13 and 14); (Revelation/Apocalypse 20:6). We know this because Jesus himself promises in John 5 verses 28 that at that time he will indeed call everyone who's in the grave to come out and they will. Heart warming, isn't it? Imagine being able to reunite with John again with the prospect of never losing him to death again! What a time that will be! These promises are not mere dreams. They harmonize with Jehovah God's will. Which is why Apocalypse 21 verses 3 to 5 says: "And I heard a loud voice from the throne, saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is among men, and He will dwell among them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself will be among them, and He will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there will no longer be any death; there will no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain; the first things have passed away." And He who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." And He said, "Write, for these words are faithful and true." So as you trust in these promises and await John's resurrection, please heed Jesus' counsel in John 17: 3 and take steps to gain accurate knowledge of Jehovah and Jesus through a Bible study with the Witnesses. In fact, in John 5 verse 39, Jesus explains that such study is imperative for anyone who wishes to have endless life one day here on earth, which will be transformed into a paradise where you can be re-united with John again in a world free of VIOLENCE, WAR, SICKNESS, OLD AGE, even DEATH ETC. as stated in the following Scriptures: (Ps 37: 9-11 and 29), (Psalms 46: 8 and 9), (Isaiah 33:24), (Job: 33:25, (Matthew 5: 5).

May Jehovah comfort you in your sorrow!

“ My condolences to the Deines Family,

During this time of great sorrow, may it comfort you to know that others are deeply touched by your loss. I too know the pain of losing someone dear. Even though our hearts are broken, rest assure that our Grand Creator cares about you personally (1Peter5:7) and can help you through this difficult time.

Revelation 21:4 speaks of a time soon when God will do away with death forever. There will be no more sorrow, heartache, or pain. May your happy memories and sure scriptural hope comfort your hearts during this painful time.

“ It was very difficult not being able to be with you all today to celebrate John's life. What a great person he was. I will never forget his laugh. My condolences to all the family for your loss, but such a wonderful place he has gone and to be with my dad and uncle just like old times. God's Blessings on all during this time. Have a beer for me guys.

“ I knew John since our 9th grade in Torrington High School---he also started college in Torrington for a short while.
Also from the "dutch hop" days.
I always enjoyed bumping into him when I was visiting Torrington.
The last time was at a play at the EWC a couple of years ago.
A real nice guy.
