“ I played hockey with John for about 5 years. He loved the sport and was one of the most talented players in the region. His dedication and fun-loving spirit were contagious. He is one of the nicest most geniune people I've had the pleasure of calling my friend. One of those people thats just a good guy in every sense of the phrase. My sincere condolences to his family. John will be sorely missed by those of us whose hearts he touched through the sport of hockey. We will always keep his memory as a fellow Wildcat close to our hearts.

Be in peace Sellanne...

“ Dear Connie and Dan:

I was so sad to hear about the passing of your son, but I am happy to know that your son was saved. I am praying for your family. I can't imagine the pain that you are feeling, one of my favorite verses is "Thou tellest my wanderings: put thou my tears into thy bottle: are they not in thy book?" Palms 56:8. What a Savior we have that has our tears counted.

Love in Christ,

“ To The Family of Mr. Johnathan Scott Miller

My name is Annette. I would like to express my deepest sympathy to each of you.

Although we are not acquainted with one another, we are acquainted with the pain when our loved ones fall asleep in death.

At Matthew 6:10 Jesus taught us to pray for God's Kingdom to come here upon the earth as it is in the heavens.

The fact that the the heavens is peaceful, no sickness, death, etc. is surely a place where we would like to be. So when we pray for these conditions to come on the earth, we are asking God to restore the earth back to its original condition when he created the first Man and Woman.

That Kingdom will be a reality here on the earth.

The Scriptures promises that the day is soon to come in which death will be no more and that Almighty God Jehovah will wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever. (Revelation 21:3-5)

He promises too that your loved ones, my loved ones and many others will hear his voice and come out of the memorial tombs (graves) to live in heaven-like conditions right here on the earth. (John 5:28,29; Psalms 37:29)
