He grew up on a ranch outside of town; attending Sheridan schools and, as a child, he often rode his pony, 'Peggy' to class. He graduated from Sheridan High School in 1938. He went on to attend Compton Junior College in Southern California and then enrolled at the University of Wyoming but then interrupted his studies to enlist in the military after Pearl Harbor and served with the Army Infantry in the Aleutian Islands. After his discharge, he returned to the University of Wyoming and graduated first in his class from UW College of Law and was admitted to the bar in July of 1947. He then was in private practice in Sheridan and Torrington, Wyoming for 25 years. He married Helen K. Kelley on June 27, 1942 in Laramie. She died on July 14, 1991 in Cheyenne. Maier then married Ruth Ann Heist on September 18, 1993 in Cheyenne and the couple retired to Mesa, Arizona in 2001. Gov. Stan Hathaway appointed Maier as a judge for the 1st Judicial District in Cheyenne in 1972 where he served until he retired in 1987; but continued to hear cases as a judge on retirement status. Wyoming Supreme Court Justice E. James Burke later listed Maier as one of three judges who had the most impact on his early career. In an interview published in the February 2005 'Wyoming Lawyer' , the journal of the Wyoming State Bar Association, Burke said Maier and the other two judges 'really demanded that you be prepared. If you weren't, there would be consequences - and those consequences would not be pretty.' Maier also served in the Judge Advocate General Corps while in the Army Reserve where he retired as a Colonel in 1974. Maier served on the Goshen County School District board and was a tennis coach at Torrington High School. He was also a member of the Wyoming State School Board Association and served as a trustee of St. Joseph's Children's Home in Torrington. He was a member of the International Association of Trial Judges, the Rotary International, and the American Legion. He was also a fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel. “ I first met Judge Joseph F. Maier in 1963 when he was practicing law in Torrington and I was the court reporter with Judge Rodney Guthrie, Newcastle. In January 1974, I went to work with Judge Maier as his court reporter. This relationship continued through his retirement, and then beyond.

Joe Maier was an outstanding judge. I was privileged to be a part of his history. He did not see any difference in defendants who came before him as far as who they were, only what their crime had been. Justice was one of his best qualities. He did not spare anyone from holding the Court in the highest regard. When he sat on the bench, attorneys who came before him knew this. Respect for the law came first in every case.

He lived his life in the same manner. He was generous, kind and loving to all his family and friends. He made one feel like they were the only person in the room when he greeted them. He had a ready handshake and an infectious smile for all. He never neglected to welcome you into his home and see that you were treated as part of his real family. As a personal friend, he was always available to help or act in your behalf.

Rest in peace, Judge Maier. You are sorely missed.
