“ Growing up Justin always welcomed me with a warm hug, he was a bright smile every time. I remember him barbecuing and playing dice fiercely as we joked about a lucky dollar in the pot. He was a fun and kind man, I will miss him, may he rest in peace.

Justin was the most magnetic people I have ever met. I miss his words of wisdom and strength. I know I won't be the only person to miss Justin. He was kind to everyone and just wanted peace and joy for the people around him. Prayers for the family. I Love you Justin, see you soon.
