“ We are saddened to hear of Kenny's passing. I have many fond memories of uncle Kenny growing up in Torrington. When I was in College, I visited the family one weekend and we all went to Little Moon for dinner. I'll never forget watching Kenneth "A" dancing with cousin Lorna. My did they swing around the dance floor. I know Kenny will be dancing with Lorna and other friends and family members in Heaven. May God provide our grieving family peace and consolation that Kenny is now home in Heaven.

“ Ken over the years contributed to this community in his own quiet but competent way. I found him to be a deep thinker who took his time to voice an opinion. He was truly professional in his endeavors in life.
I extend my sympathy and reach out to his entire family. With best wishes,
Keith
